

Yves Missi vs Texas 1/20/2024 – Film

Yves was not a focal point on the offensive end, resulting in limited touches. He managed to score on two layups in pick-and-roll action and executed a nice move in the lane, driving left and spinning back right for a layup off the glass.

Defensively, he challenging shots at the rim and was diligent in boxing out to allow his teammates to secure rebounds, although he did not pull down many himself. He also demonstrated his ability to move his feet well, successfully guarding a shifty perimeter player and forcing a long-contested shot.

He show potential on both ends of the court despite not being a primary offensive option. He was efficient in his limited scoring opportunities and displayed solid defensive skills, particularly in shot-challenging and perimeter defense
