

Darius Days (Film 1-30-2021 vs. Texas Tech)

Darius Days had a very quiet 11 points in his game against Texas Tech. He went 4-5 from the field, and it seemed like he was due to have a good night, but he is the fourth option for the Tigers, and didn't get the touches I think he should have based on how he was shooting.

Offensively, he shot the ball well from 3 as he made 2-3. He had a put-back of an offensive rebound. He also drew a foul on a layup attempt in which he went 1-2 from the line.

Defensively, he boxed out to secure rebounds, and he closed out well on shooters behind the 3pt line. He also did a good job getting in his stance and moving his feet to contain ball-handlers.
