

E.J. Liddell #32 (Live 3/10/2022 vs Penn State)

In Liddell's performance versus Penn State, I was very impressed with how he played. Liddell can do everything as a power forward. He can shoot from deep, drive in and dunk and just completely take over the court. Although the Buckeyes didn't win this game in the Big 10 tournament, I was very impressed with how Liddell performed. His rebound game was very strong, and he shot 6-14 at the FG. He hit 2 3's shooting 40% from 3 and as a bigger guy that is impressive. Liddell drew fouls a lot and can make almost every free throw. He also had 25 points which carried his team. Although the Buckeyes fell short in the end, Liddell showed what he is worth. We can expect to see Liddell in the upcoming draft, and I am very excited to see what he can do in the league.

E.J. Liddell shot 6-14 FG, 2-5 3PT and had 8 REB, 1 AST, 2 BLK, 3 TO and 25 PTS.

Final Thoughts

E.J. Liddell is an impressive player to watch, I can see him making it to the NBA and potentially being really good. He can shoot, rebound, dunk, and draw fouls. This is everything you need to make it to the league and I think Liddell has what it takes to be a great player.
